Reuben Silverbird

Dedicates Australian Tour To Children's Charity

Friend of the Dalai Lama, former US President Bill Clinton and former President Yasser Arafat, J. Reuben Silverbird, of the Universal Peace Federation is coming to North Queensland on November 26th-28th.

Son of a Nedhni Apache Wise Man and a Cherokee Medicine Woman, Silverbird is also attached to the United Nations and holds lectures, concerts and retreats around the world.

All profits from his tour will go to support the charity "Paradise Kids" founded on the Gold Coast in 1996 to help children deal with abuse and grief through death, loss or illness. To date the charity has helped more than 5,000 children and their families deal with traumatic situations.

The woman behind the move to bring Silverbird to Australia, Jutta Swan, said: "Silverbird is regularly invited to perform ceremonial blessings at the Nobel Prize Institute in Oslo, Norway, is an accomplished musician, singer, performer and orator, and has spoken at universities in the United States, Austria and Switzerland".

"His tour is called Sowing the Seeds of Love, which in these times of global and political unrest is a message that is more relevant and meaningful than ever."

First time in Cairns, Silverbird will appear at the Tjapukai Aboriginal Cultural Park, Cairns Western-Arterial Road, Caravonica Qld 4780 on November 26.

People can expect to be drawn into Native American culture on a level, that is not only valid in our modern daily lives, but promotes respect, unity, love and peace worldwide through song and words.

A separate Evening Concert will follow the all day seminar on November 26, which will be opened with an Aboriginal Blessing.

Advance purchase tickets are available online or at the door, unless sold out. For information and ticket sales, www.reubensilverbird.com or 0416 586 816.
